

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Preempting regular programming to show a blatantly partisan attack film on John Kerry is an unexcuseable abuse of the public airwaves.

Camille LeDoux
Cordova, TN